HALL OF FAME HONORS 6 TODAY

The second annual induction of the Clemson Athletic Hall of Fame takes place today when five more former Tiger athletes and a former coach will be presented blazers and plaques, which will be hung in the Jervey Athletic Center.

The Association of Tiger Lettermen are sponsors of the Hall of Fame with the first induction held last year. At that time Frank Howard, Joe Blalock, Banks McFadden, Fred Cone, W. A. Schilleter and Billy O'Dell were inducted. Blalock and Schilleter have died since their induction.

Scheduled to be honored today are former football stars John Maxwell and Joel Wells, basketball standout Bill Yarborough, baseballer Joe Landrum, Bob Jones, who played both football and basketball for the Tigers, and then was on the coaching staff 44 years; and special inductee Rock Norman, who spent 18 years on the Clemson coaching staff.

Maxwell quarterbacked the Tigers in 1902-03 under Coach John Heisman and led Clemson to a 10-2-1 record in what has been termed the "Golden Age of Clemson Football."

Joe Landrum

Bob Jones

Joel Wells

Rock Norman

One southern newspaper selected an All-South unit in 1903, which listed a trio of Clemson standouts, including Maxwell. An article said:

"Maxwell is one of the best quarterbacks the South has seen in many a day. Especially is he useful under the new style of play inaugurated by the new rules, for he has shown in every contest that as a ground gainer from quarterback runs he is without a peer. Maxwell is also a heady leader and should be selected to captain and run the team."

Heisman rated Maxwell as one of the best quarterbacks he ever coached.

Wells, a halfback, lettered in 1954-55-56, serving as alternate captain his senior year. He was All-Atlantic Coast Conference his junior and senior year and led the league in rushing in 1955 with 782 yards.

"The Clipper" helped Clemson to a 19-10-2 record in three years, including a trip to the 1957 Orange Bowl when the Tigers dripped a squeaker to Colorado.

Wells' credentials, which included one of the best blockers on the squad as well as a top defensive back, earned him third team All-America honors in 1955.

Yarborough was Clemson's first modern-day basketball standout, earning five letters from 1952 through 1957. He was granted an extra semester by the ACC under the hardship rule and is the only Clemson player ever to earn five basketball letters.

His performance for the Tigers is still evidenced in that 11 school records are still owned by Yarborough. His 28.3 scoring average for the 1954-55 season still stands as the highest in Clemson history.

This is the 1902 Clemson team which recorded 6 wins and 1 loss. John Maxwell, who is being inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame today, was quarterback on that team. He is seated at the far right of the second row. Over Maxwell's left shoulder is John Heisman, Clemson coach that year for whom the Heisman Trophy is named.

Jones played football and basketball during the 1927-30 era, and during this time began his coaching career under Josh Cody. Coming from his native Starr, he had never played football. But in college he made the All-South team and was alternate captain of the Tigers his senior year. He also lettered three years in basketball and was captain of the cage team.

Neither Furman nor South Carolina, both big state rivals then as now, defeated a Tiger team while Jones was playing.

When Jess Neely arrived in 1931 he retained Jones on the staff for nine years and Howard did the same in 1940, and the Jones-Howard relationship remained intact for 30 years. Jones served as assistant to the athletic director and golf coach his last four years at Clemson, retiring this past June after 44 years as a player, coach and administrator.

Landrum was Clemson's first All-America baseball player, landing a first team berth in 1947. As a freshman playing with the varsity the season before, he drew the starting nod in the season opener with Erskine and responded by a no-hit, no-run game, fanning 15, walking none and allowing but one ball out of the infield.

He had a 10-2 mark in '46 and followed with an 11-1 in '47, hurling Clemson to the Southern Conference crown and the NCAA Southern title. He signed with the Brooklyn Dodgers following his sophomore year, but in two years, pitched 221 innings, struck out 195 and had an earned run average of 1.67.

Norman, a Roanoke College graduate, spent 18 years at Clemson where he served as cross country and track coach, varsity basketball coach and assisted with freshman basketball and football during the time. His track teams won seven state titles, had an overall record of 49-24, and during one stretch, won 17 meets in a row.

He has received his alma mater's highest award, the Roanoke College Medal, and is a member of the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. The Atlantic Coast Conference named Norman the recipient of its prestigious Service To Sports Award two years ago for "long, distinguished and unselfish service to athletics."

Norman spent 51 years in the coaching profession at Clemson, The Citadel, Furman, South Carolina, Bailey Military Academy, Roanoke and Carlisle Military School.

The Georgia Tech Series

Two old rivals clash in Death Valley today, but this is the first time in history that Clemson and Georgia Tech have met in Tiger territory, even though this is the 44th meeting.

The Tigers and Yellow Jackets opened their series in 1898, and Clemson grabbed a quick upper hand, winning the first four games. In fact, after the first eight games, the Tigers held a commanding 6-1-1 edge.

But after Clemson won the 1903 game by a 73-0 score for its fourth straight victory, the Yellow Jackets hired John Heisman from the Tigers.

Heisman won one of the next four games, but in 1908, Georgia Tech started a string of 15 consecutive victories over the Tigers and Clemson did not taste another triumph until a narrow 14-13 win in 1936.

Clemson won its eighth game of the series in 1945, Bobby Dodd's first year at Tech and won again in 1969, Frank Howard's last year as Tiger coach.

Over the years Georgia Tech has built up 33 wins while losing nine and having one tie. All of these games have been played in Atlanta.

Georgia Tech brought Pepper Rodgers "back home" this year, but in his first three games, played in a space of 12 days, the Yellow Jackets have spanked South Carolina, but have bowed to national champion Notre Dame and to the Pitt Panthers, led by sensational running back Tony Dorsett.

The Yellow Jackets leave Atlanta today for the first time this year while Clemson plays before the home crowd for the initial time in '74. The Tigers have dropped their first two games to Texas A&M and N. C. State, both nationally ranked.

Rodgers' first order of business after returning to the site where he set Yellow Jacket fans on fire two decades ago was to install the wishbone offense.

Although losing to Notre Dame in the opener on national television, the Yellow Jackets took the opening kickoff and drove the length of the field against the Irish. The next week against the Gamecocks, Georgia Tech established a new school rushing record with nearly 500 yards on the ground. Even in the 10-point loss to Pitt, the Jackets ground out 311 yards rushing. All of this indicates that Georgia Tech is ready to give the Death Valley turf a pounding today.

Clemson is expected to lean heavily on the running of Ken Callicutt, Tony Mathews and Don Testerman, with Mark Fellers sharing some of the running load at quarterback.

This is Hall of Fame Day at Clemson and it seems only fitting that one of the nation's leading football powers is the Tigers' opponent this afternoon.

Welcome to Clemson Memorial Stadium. We're glad to have you here for another Saturday of Tiger Football and think you'll find the gridiron action among the most exciting in our conference.

There's another kind of excitement on our campus and we invite you to share that too. It has to do with fulfillment on the one hand and with anticipation on the other.

For more than 10 years we have planned our physical expansion to accommodate a student population of about 10,000 by 1975. As you can observe from a glance around you or a drive through the campus, we have several major construction projects under way. Not since the sixties, when the skyline changed dramatically, has there been as much concurrent expansion under way. This year's freshman class will be witness to more completion and initiation of construction during their educational career than any others have seen in a similar four-year period.

Just across the street from you is Fike Recreation Center, headquarters for Clemson's growing intramurals program, which is undergoing major renovation and expansion. The massive new structure at the rear of Fike will contain a swimming pool and diving tank plus other new facilities. In the middle of Johnstone Hall, visible from the loggia area, construction is about half finished on headquarters for Clemson's University Union program. Under renovation, the old Post Office building, now Mell Hall, will soon become offices for the Student Affairs staff.

On west campus an addition to the College of Architecture's Lee Hall is nearing completion. Construction began during the summer on Barre Hall, new home of the College of Forest and Recreation Resources and administrative offices for the College of Agriculture.

October 16 is groundbreaking day for Jordan Hall, a long-awaited and much needed Biological Sciences Center which will rise in the area just above Strode Tower. Nearby is the site for the College of Nursing's new $3.5 million facility which moved from dream to probable reality with the recently announced pledges of federal support totaling $2.2 million. Complete renovation and expansion of Agricultural Engineering's McAdams Hall will be started this year rounding out the planned physical expansion program.

We are equally excited by the continuing development of our academic programs. Perhaps at no other time in its history has Clemson been in a better position to achieve greatness as a university. During the next few years we anticipate significant changes in curriculum content as we are determined to produce the best possible opportunities for our students. One major innovation in a regional sense is the Southern Region Educational Board's Academic Common Market for Graduate Study. This permits a student at one university to enroll in graduate study programs at other universities in other states without paying out-of-state tuition rates. There are 17 such programs in South Carolina; 14 are at Clemson.

Welcome again to our campus. We're happy that you are with us in person today to share the football fun, and hope you'll be with us in spirit tomorrow as we continue our educational mission.

Bill McLellan, Director of Athletics

Clemson's athletic department is moving rapidly in the right direction mainly because it has a superb chief engineer in Bill McLellan, a man who became the school's third director of athletics Feb. 4, 1971.

Since the Hamer native assumed the department's top position, the Tiger sports' program has experienced a major face-lifting, and one which has caused quite a bit of excitement around the school.

Last December McLellan led a contingent into the Frank Johnstone Jervy Athletic Center as Clemson vacated the out-dated facilities of Fike Field House in place of the modern structure that is by far one of the finest in the entire country. Not only does the Center house administrative and coaches' offices, separate dressing facilities for all sports, and the ticket office, but it houses an auxiliary gym with a tartan floor and two playing courts, a dirt area for inside workouts, training and equipment rooms, steam room and sauna bath, in addition to other allied facilities necessary for an efficient athletic operation, including a weight room second to none.

Additionally, since McLellan has been Clemson's director of athletics, the Tiger track team has christened a nine-lane all-weather outdoor facility, the soccer program has developed into one of the best in the nation as the Tig booters have claimed two consecutive Atlantic Coast Conference titles and have been involved in two straight NCAA playoffs, not to mention the progress Clemson's football and basketball programs have made.

On the grid scene, for example, the old wooden seats in Clemson's Memorial Stadium have been replaced by aluminum ones which are more comfortable for the fans, dressing facilities under the stadium for game use by the Tigers and their opponents are second to no one's, and also during the McLellan era, three new practice fields, one equipped with the finest in lighting techniques are just out the door and a few steps away from the dressing areas in the Jervy Center.

Together with the Tiger baseball field, called "the finest playing surface in the South" by professional scouts and opponents as well, the beautiful 10,600-seat Littlejohn Coliseum across the street from the Jervy Center, the tennis complex that includes 14 lighted hard surface courts and a separate tennis house for office and dressing areas, and the new olympic-size swimming pool and separate diving tank which is being completed in Fike Recreation Center, McLellan has been the architect of one of the most modern and rapidly-developing college athletic programs in the nation.

But his sights have been on the entire Clemson family as well as he has been responsible for a tremendous boom in the intramural program for the student body in addition to the faculty and staff members at Tigertown. In fact, it has grown so fast that this program is being headed by three full-time staff members whereas it operated under the guidance of a part-time director just five short years ago. In making improvements for students as fast as he does for the athletic department, McLellan engineered a five-year plan, now in its second year, of mass growth for the intramural-athletic program.

Such is the saga of Bill McLellan, a loyal Clemson man who has been around Tigertown for almost 25 years, which includes his grid career under the legendary Frank Howard.

After earning a pair of football letters and a member of the 1952 Gator Bowl, McLellan graduated from Clemson in 1954 with a BS in agronomy, and with an MS in agricultural economics two years later.

And since his appointment as assistant business manager of athletics in 1958, he has worked his way, through football coaching, IPTAY, administrative and ticket duties, all the way to the top. And because he has worked so hard to put the Tigers on top, he has risen to the top as well. He's done it for one reason, his love for Clemson University.

He is married to the former Ann Rogers of Fork, and they have two daughters, Suzy, a freshman at Winthrop, and Arch Anna, and two sons, Bill and Cliff.

ARA-Slater's philosophy is a unique, systematic approach designed to achieve our most important goal: STUDENT SATISFACTION. This concept is a result of our experience with millions of students. We have the flexibility to understand your needs and the capability to satisfy them.

At Clemson, ARA demonstrates practical, new methods for providing nourishing, well-balanced meals to athletes, students and staff. Our corporate and regional specialists give ARA's dining service manager expert advice in planning menus, purchasing goods, controlling waste, utilizing labor. The support of this team effort is carried out daily in Schilleter Hall and Harcombe Commons, and at the Clemson House Buffeteria. It is our desire to serve students what they want and to accommodate them by providing this same efficient service for special events or festive holiday meals.

We're here to provide the type of service that will benefit the entire school and community. THAT'S WHAT WE THINK A DINING SERVICE IS ALL ABOUT.

At home in the evening with the entire family is a rarity for Coach Red Parker. But here in a relaxed mood in the Parker den are, left to right, daughter Vicki, son-in-law Phil Wallace, son Jim Mack, Coach Parker, wife Betty and daughter Cindy with the family pooch, Heide.

Whatever you build, build it like you'd recruit your line.

Whether you're building a house, commercial building, or a football line, you want the same qualities: reliability, versatility, strength and staying power.

At Richtex Corporation of Columbia, we build these qualities into our brick with the same enthusiasm with which we support the Clemson Tigers.

Next time you're thinking about building something, think brick. Enjoy the game, and when you think brick, think Richtex.

Red Parker

Head Football Coach

He came to Clemson in December of 1972 with one goal in mind—to put claws back on the Tiger. He installed a new game plan called “Big Red’s Machine—The Tiger Triple,” and with it saw his gridders amass over 4,000 yards offensively. And in leading his footballers to a 5-6 record he caused opponents to look with respect and sometimes even a fear towards his team.

He’s no miracle worker, but Red Parker is one top notch football coach. And the biggest thing he’s got going for himself is the simple fact that he’s one heck of a guy, and one who is respected by not only his peers, his players, and the fans, but by everyone who comes in contact with him.

With this in mind, it’s no wonder that in 21 previous years in the coaching ranks, the Smilin’ Redhead from Hampton, Ark., has never served as anything less than a head coach, and that he has posted an overall record of 148-71-6, including a collegiate won-lost mark of 73-59-2.

A football, baseball, and track letterman at Arkansas A&M, Parker graduated in 1953 and at the ripe young age of 21, assumed the grid reins at Fordyce, Ark., High School, a school that was carrying a 22-game losing streak.

However, by the time the Redhead had worked his successful formula for winning into his eight-year stay at Fordyce, his grid achievements included a 37-game winning skein and a sparkling overall record of 75-12-4.

But the high school’s loss was a definite plus on the side of his alma mater as Parker returned to Arkansas A&M in 1961 to head up the grid fortunes. And although he ended a five-year stay with a 29-19-2 mark, his last three campaigns were by far his best, as Parker’s ’63, ’64, and ’65 teams posted a fine 24-5-1 record and had claimed a pair of conference championships.

The Redhead then journeyed to the State of South Carolina and took over the football duties at The Citadel in 1966, and remained at the Charleston institution through the 1972 season.

After installing a veer offense for the Bulldogs, Parker’s Cadets became the bully of the Southern Conference, and his 1971 team, which scored 366 points and posted an 8-3 mark, had 5,030 yards of real estate to rank the school fourth in the nation in the total offense department. A seven-year stand at The Citadel by Parker gave the ’Dogs a 39-34 record—a mighty fine showing for a school with 2,000 men and one which could only promise a recruit that he would leave the school as a man.

Then came Tigertown. He made no promises prior to his first season other than issuing a warning to opponents that the Tigers would be no easy game. The ’73 footballers won three more games than pre-season prognosticators said they would, and Clemson finished a strong third in the Atlantic Coast Conference behind N. C. State and Maryland, both of whom went on to post-season bowls.

Moreover, the Tigs produced 231 points last fall, more than any other Clemson team had managed since the ’59 Blue-bonnet Bowl champs scored 285. And most of all, every single member of last year’s team had one heck of a time playing for one heck of a coach.

And to coin an old Parker phrase, “A dollar to a donut” says that the Tigers will get better and better each year that the Redhead is at the helm. That’s why folks are saying, in reference to the upcoming season, “Excitement Galore—Clemson Football ’74.”

Parker is married to the former Betty Goggans of Rison, Ark., and they have two daughters, Vicki and Cindy, and a son, Jim Mack.

CLEMSON BASKETBALL '74-'75

Tates Locke called it one year ago when he said "This is the beginning of a new era in Clemson basketball history."

It was one year ago when the Tiger boss landed 7-1 Wayne "Tree" Rollins, a youngster out of the small town of Cordele, Ga.; and it was one year ago that Clemson's big center, in only his freshman year, led the Tigers to a 14-12 record, marking the first winning season for Clemson since the 1966-67 cagers went 17-8.

Starting in all 26 varsity games, Tree paced the Tigers in shooting percentage (.543) from the floor and rebounding (12.2), and was second in scoring with a 12.4 mark. Additionally, he blocked 106 shots and was tabbed as the premier big man in the rugged Atlantic Coast Conference, the nation's toughest cage league, by Maryland All-American Len Elmore.

But planted around the Tigers' Tree are some other experienced performers, headed by co-captains Van Gregg and 6-9 forward Wayne Croft.

Gregg has led Clemson's scoring attack the past two seasons, pumping in an average of 13.8 points per game last winter, and Croft, after a mediocre sophomore year, turned in what has to be the greatest turnaround ever by an ACC performer.

Not only did Croft average 11.2 points a contest, but he was second to Tree in rebounding with an 8.0 mark, and together with Rollins gave Clemson a rugged one-two inside punch.

Returning lettermen include 6-1 Jo Jo Bethea (3.3), 6-9 Scott Conant (2.9), 6-0 Bruce Harman (3.7), 6-8 Marty Patterson (3.7), and 6-9 Charlie Rogers (5.5).

And up from last year's Cub unit are 6-8 David Brown (16.1), 6-6 Andy Butchko (11.1), 5-11 Kenny Davis (13.2), and 6-2 John Franken (15.7).

Moreover, Locke has gone out and turned in the best overall recruiting job ever in Tiger cage history, as the fifth-year coach landed two bona fide prep All-Americans, and a pair of others with credentials that would put a flutter in the hearts of most coaches.

Stan Rome brings to Tigertown a 32 point per game scoring average and the award as the nation's best athlete as selected by PARADE Magazine.

At 6-5, Rome was All-American in both football and basketball at Valdosta, Ga., High School, and if he plays in the backcourt he could team up with 6-4 Baltimore, Md., All-American Skip Wise, a whiz who was voted as the top guard in the nation by a panel of college coaches which included UCLA's John Wooden.

Darlington's 6-6 Colon Abraham scored over 28 points a game as a prepster and Williston's Jim Howell, at 6-5, averaged 27 a game, and no doubt the entire incoming frosh foursome will give the vets a run for a starting berth this season.

So the 1974-75 Tiger cage slate looms to be the most exciting year yet in Clemson basketball history.

1975. NOVA'S ALWAYS BEEN GOOD. NOW IT'S BEAUTIFUL.

Economy has taken a turn for the better.

The compact '75 Nova has been emphatically refined along the lines of elegant European sedans. Yet it's more than ever a strong reflection of the Chevrolet engineering tradition.

ANNOUNCING THE LN.

Nova's newfound beauty is ably represented by a whole new kind of Nova, one that just might be precisely right for the times.

You're looking at the 1975 Nova LN—the most luxurious compact in Chevrolet history. The wide-back reclining front seats look and feel like big, soft lounge chairs. The front seat backs adjust to give you the right slant on comfort. And the matching

'75 Nova LN.
To sit in one is to settle on one.

materials and fabrics throughout the car are a classic example of beauty in color coordination. There's also an electric clock and much more that says Nova LN.

ANNOUNCING ALL THE OTHER '75 NOVAS.

The basic '75 Nova, Nova Custom and Nova SS have many things in common with the LN. Styling, comfort, sensible size and sensible prices, to name a few. Thick carpeting, front disc brakes and GM-Specification steel-belted radial ply tires, to name a few more.

Obviously, the beautiful new '75 Nova—with its new front suspension system, trusty six-cylinder engine and new double-panel roof construction—is still a supremely practical Nova.

NOVA'S LOOKING BETTER ALL THE TIME.

We think beauty and practicality go together exceedingly well. And you're cordially invited to make the same conclusion—at your nearest Chevrolet dealer's.

WE DON'T SETTLE FOR FIELD GOALS.

That's why the United States Marine Corps is a tough team to beat. And a tough team to make.

We want quality, not quantity.

If you've finished high school but haven't finished learning...

Or if you're a college man who is ready for leadership and responsibility...

If you've got it and you want to stand with the Marines, you'll be welcome.

Just keep one thing in mind: we make no compromises, no shortcuts, and only one promise—You'll be a Marine.

One of the few, and one of the finest.

A new science fills a psychological need for the physically and mentally handicapped.

Hoeing a garden, planting a flower and arranging a terrarium. These familiar activities play key roles in a new method developed at Clemson for treating alcohol and drug abusers, the mentally retarded and blind, and the imprisoned. Over 130 visitors from 15 states were introduced to the new science during three workshops held here this April, June and July.

Hortitherapy—utilizing the care of plants to fill a psychological need and raise the level of individual motivation—is being applied in various ways to improve the physical and mental well being of special groups throughout South Carolina with the help of Clemson's horticultural department.

"The care of flowers and shrubs satisfies a psychological need for most people," says Dr. T. L. Senn, horticulture department head. "Everyone needs something to do, something to love and something to hope for."

The workshops at Clemson this year demonstrated the beneficial effects of the University's program in seven major state projects now underway.

At Piedmont Skills in Greenville Miss Jo Ann Hiott, a Clemson graduate student, conducts the hortitherapy program, helping to train retarded youths while giving them a new lease on life and enabling many to actually qualify for employment.

At Charles Lea Center in Spartanburg, horticultural projects have been added to home economics and vocational programs for retarded youngsters.

Forty children at Whitten Village in Clinton have already been trained, many of whom are now working in local nurseries and flower shops.

At Holmesview and Milestone Centers, devoted to vocational rehabilitation of alcoholics and long-term treatment of drug abusers, respectively, Mrs. Joyce Berry, another graduate student from Clemson, helps show how to make flower arrangements, cuttings and various plantings. The program is meeting an enthusiastic response.

At Columbia TEC, some youthful offenders have already been trained as greenhouse assistants.

Training in horticultural skills has helped motivate elderly inmates at Goodman Correctional Institute.

The new course, Hortitherapy 470 and 670, was offered by Clemson this spring for the first time. Only two other known American universities offer it. Representatives from the Universities of Minnesota and Rhode Island, among others, were here to observe the June workshop.

The Clemson program actually began in 1964 with the institution of the Garden for the Blind, now a part of the Horticultural Gardens complex. Two special grants this year enabled the horticulture department to begin the new graduate program and to expand its work into the areas of the mentally retarded and correctional institutions. The first hortitherapy workshop, in April, was co-sponsored by the Regional Evaluation and Adjustment Program of the University of Tennessee.

Dr. Senn plans to use two dedicated groups to further spread the word about hortitherapy. Garden Club volunteers will soon integrate appropriate programs for various handicapped groups into their activities. Senior citizens groups will also lend a hand.

In addition, Dr. Senn will be sending out a specially designed van this fall, holding mini-workshops in hortitherapy for various organizations, training instructors and making the public aware of the new program.

THE CLEMSON TIGER... ...NUMBER 1

The Clemson University Athletic Department has been presented "The Clemson Tiger, Number 1", the first of 500 models in a special Limited Edition series. Hampton III Gallery, Ltd., of Taylors, S. C., made the gift presentation as an introduction to offering the Limited Edition series for sale.

Captain Frank Jervy, for whom the Jervy Athletic Center is named, stated: "I'll tell you right now, it's the finest tiger I've ever seen."

Bill McLellan, Athletic Director of Clemson University, added:

"We want our Clemson people to know that this is a fine art piece and that we are honored to receive this first tiger and hope that many of our Clemson fans will take advantage of this offer."

"The Clemson Tiger" will be on permanent display in the lobby of the Jervy Athletic Center. In addition to the presentation of the first model to the Clemson Athletic Department, Hampton III Gallery will award as a gift one of the tigers to each of the next three Clemson athletes to be named All-American.

As representative of the Hampton III Gallery, Jerald Melberg announced that the Special Projects Division of the four-year-old art gallery, in cooperation with the Clemson University Athletic Department, has commissioned the noted Louis Paul Jonas Studios, of New York, to create a one-tenth scale model for special release to Clemson alumni and friends. The Limited Edition, guaranteed by legal certification at Clemson University, assures only 500 models of "The Clemson Tiger" will be produced.

Louis Paul Jonas Studios, Inc., world-famous for over 40 years, has specialized in creating delicately and anatomically detailed interpretations of animal life in miniature. Established by the Hungarianborn sculptor, Louis Paul Jonas, Sr., the studios have created animal sculpture, museum taxidermy and dioramas on every scale. They supply special limited editions ranging in price from $350 to $700 to educational institutions and private collections throughout the world. In works of a larger scale, the founder of the Jonas Studios was perhaps best known for his creation of nine full-sized dinosaurs for the New York World's Fair in 1964. He and his studios have created unique animal displays and dioramas for major museums such as the American Museum of Natural History, the Springfield (Mass.) Natural History Museum, the Baroda State Museum in India, University of Arizona, Denver Municipal Park and many others.

Referring to "The Clemson Tiger" model, Mr. Melberg, host-director of Hampton III Gallery, stated it should not be confused with the ordinary mascot-type reproduction commonly available. "Each sculpture," he explained, "is painstakingly reproduced in a process developed and perfected over a period of thirty years from a strong clay-based material the artist chose to call a 'resilient ceramic'. The models are kiln fired, individually finished and painted by hand in oil colors by professionally trained artists."

He assured each model will be individually signed and numbered in order of completion. Work has begun on the first castings and it is expected to take as long as 30 months to complete the Clemson Limited Edition of 500 models. According to the Gallery's spokesman, to their knowledge this is the first time such a project has been prepared for alumni and friends of any college or university.

Mr. Melberg, who also currently serves as president of the Greenville Artists

Guild, spoke enthusiastically of the project. "Considering the tens of thousands of Clemson alumni and their families and friends who will read of this offering, it is assumed likely that far more than 500 will try to take advantage of the Limited Edition." He added that only the first 500 orders can be accepted.

The tiger model, mounted on a finished walnut base which measures approximately 14½ x 5 inches, is priced at four hundred dollars. Special arrangements are available for payments of fifty dollars each over an eight month period, without interest or carrying charges. Complete payment is necessary before delivery of "The Clemson Tiger". Because of the uncertainty of future production costs, the price is guaranteed only for orders placed by January 1, 1975.

By special arrangement with the Louis Paul Jonas Studios, Hampton III Gallery has scheduled a special showing of "The Clemson Tiger", along with many other of the Jonas Studios' animal creations in their Limited Edition series. These are now on display during the regular gallery hours.

Hampton III Gallery, Ltd., is a private commercial gallery showing selected contemporary paintings, sculpture and ceramics. Featured in the gallery are the works of some twenty leading South-eastern artists, including Clemson's own John Acorn, Robert Hunter, and Tom Turner, as well as Carl Blair, Emery Bopp, and Darell Koons.

Known for its unique location as the central focal point of a shopping and professional complex known as Gallery Centre, it is situated on Wade Hampton Boulevard in Taylors, two and one-half miles north of Greenville, S. C., on U.S. 29N. The gallery is open daily, except Sunday and Monday, from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M. and by appointment.

Jerald Melberg (left) of Hampton III Gallery, Ltd., presents "The Clemson Tiger, Number 1" model to athletic director Bill McLellan (center) and Capt. Frank J. Jervey. The model is on display in the lobby of Clemson's new athletic headquarters named the Frank Johnstone Jervey Athletic Center in honor of Capt. Jervey.

If you're itching to fly but don't have the scratch, the Air Force may have the answer. One of the benefits of Air Force ROTC is flying lessons. Enroll in Air Force ROTC, you're off, and the sky's no limit.

If college tuition money is a problem, Air Force ROTC may once again be the answer. If you qualify, you may find you can get one of the many college scholarships Air Force ROTC offers. And that would mean full tuition, lab and incidental fees, textbook reimbursement, and a monthly allowance of $100.00.

Not a bad deal. Flying lessons, free tuition, and $100.00 a month, tax-free to use as you like.

Sound great? Ask me how you can put it all together in Air Force ROTC. My name is Col. Duncan W. Rabey, Jr., and I'm on campus at Tillman Hall, Third Floor, Ext. 656-3254.

Put It All Together in Air Force ROTC.

IPTAY = SUCCESS

For the 10th consecutive year IPTAY funds have increased over those of the previous 12 months, and IPTAY '74 has just ended as the most successful year in the 40 years of the organization's history.

The club poured in 113 per cent of its goal from Sept. 1st, 1973 until the August 31, 1974 closing date, and the figure exceeded the previous year's amount by almost $100,000.

Moreover, in attaining the record-setting mark, every single county in South Carolina reached its respective quota, as did the State's of North Carolina and Georgia. Additionally, the other states, including foreign country contributions, reached 110 per cent of their established goal.

Colleton paced the Palmetto State counties with 189 per cent, followed by Dorchester (140), Chester (138), and a fourth-place tie among Aiken, Calhoun, and Marlboro with 137 per cent.

Next in per cent came Williamsburg (129), Dillon (127), and Cherokee and Edgefield with 123 each.

Again, Greenville County raised the largest contributions of any other county in the state with $96,700, ahead of Richland's $57,220.

The top 10 was rounded out with Pickens ($49,890), Anderson ($44,820), Spartanburg ($39,780), Greenwood ($19,610), Florence ($19,340), Lexington ($16,560), Orangeburg ($15,270), and York ($14,060).

The late Dr. Ruppert H. (Rube) Fike organized IPTAY in 1934 with one purpose in mind—to finance athletic scholarships. And since that date, not one single penny has gone for anything else other than scholarships for Clemson's 11 intercollegiate sports.

Thousands of student athletes have received an education because of IPTAY which may not have otherwise been possible.

Lewis Holmes, as president, led IPTAY '74, and thanks to his efforts, those of his officers, and of the more than 400 IPTAY representatives, our goal was met.

RECEIVERS

Tiger quarterbacks have these 28 hands to throw to this fall when Clemson takes to the air. 1-Jerry Davis, 2-Michael Gaddis, 3-Rut Livingston, 4-Richard Ibach, 5-Joey Walters, 6-Jeff Buesing, 7-Bennie Cunningham, 8-Harold Cain, 9-Rich Bollinger, 10-Brad Ashley, 11-Jim Lanzendoen, 12-Rickey Bustle, 13-Craig Brantley, 14-Mike Webber.

CENTERS

Each play starts with these players. A true snap by the center sets the Tigers in action. 1-Jay Kries, 2-Maret Cobb, 3-Ron Bowlan, 4-Wayne Neely, 5-Gregg Smith, 6-Kevin Kries.

RUNNING BACKS

These are the running backs who must handle the handoffs and the veer pitchouts from the quarterbacks. 1-Thomas Eley, 2-George Bosse, 3-Marvin Anderson, 4-Steve Jasinski, 5-Ronnie Smith, 6-Bob Coffey, 7-O. J. Tyler, 8-William Scott, 9-Tony Mathews, 10-Don Testerman, 11-Ken Callicutt, 12-Roger McCrary, 13-Leon Hope, 14-Pat Swisher, 15-Fritz Edwards.

Clemson's defensive backs take a look at Death Valley from Section GG (Green Grass), keeping in mind that there's a lot of real estate to cover when Tiger opponents start passing. 1-Harry Plexico, 2-Tony Rouse, 3-Eddie Crawford, 4-Dennis Smith, 5-Roy Eppes, 6-Rick Carter, 7-Lynn Carson, 8-Chris Clifford, 9-Dale Ulmer, 10-Malcolm Marler, 11-Brian Kier, 12-Peanut Martin, 13-Mike Cornell, 14-Jim Ness, 15-Bill Wingo, 16-Mark Lee.

These players—the defensive tackles and middle guards—are down in the trenches where the in fighting goes on. 1-Harry Lee Fulwood, 2-G. G. Galloway, 3-Willie Anderson, 4-Richard Shafer, 5-Jerome Hill, 6-Mark Strawbridge, 7-Ken Weichel, 8-Chuck Gordon, 9-George Jehlen, 10-Nelson Wallace.

The simple equation: planning + execution (know-how, teamwork, stamina, desire) = success. And, continuing success leads to Number One. Every team that gets to be Number One uses this formula to perfection. It also is the concept that has sparked the go and grow of Sandoz Colors and Chemicals. One key element in this goal calls for a largely expanded and completely modernized laboratory, warehouse, and office facilities in Charlotte to meet the growing needs of the textile industry in the Southeast.

IPTAY--

Special Recognition

For the first time in the history of Clemson IPTAY, every county in the State of South Carolina, as well as North Carolina and Georgia, went over the 100 per cent mark in their 1973-74 quota. Altogether, nearly $680,000 was raised during the year and it marked the 10th straight year an increase was seen in funds contributed to the club.

This was the third straight year that over a half million dollars had been realized by IPTAY. Every penny received by IPTAY since its beginning in 1934 has been used for athletic scholarships only.

On the following pages, we have listed those people and business organization who are being recognized by their permission for their interest and continued support of IPTAY.

87 YEARS OF SERVICE

This past June 30th Frank Howard and Bob Jones drew their last check from Clemson. It brought to an end 87 years of service to the university, 44 by Jones and 43 by Howard. Two weeks prior to their official retirement, the athletic department honored the two coaches at a supper attended by the athletic family, relatives and close friends. The occasion was captured on film by photographer Charles Haralson and are presented on these two pages. But even though they have retired both Howard and Jones maintain an office in the Jervy Athletic Center where they can keep in close contact with all of the affairs connected with Clemson athletics.

Each coach was presented a plaque signifying their long years of service. Walter Cox must have pulled a good one on Howard as this picture would indicate. In the foreground is Gene Willimon, executive secretary of IPTAY.

Jones, who was on the staff one year before Howard arrived, here accepts his plaque from Cox.

Past and present athletic directors and their first ladies were on hand for the occasion. Left to right are Howard, Ann McLellan, Anna Howard and Bill McLellan.

Wives of the two coaches were also remembered. Ellen Jones receives her beautiful clock from athletic director Bill McLellan.

Anna Howard accepts her clock from McLellan in what was a surprise presentation to both her and Mrs. Jones.

Gen. Jones puts 'em in a brace and gets his point across.

Present head coach Red Parker and his wife Betty were in attendance and apparently enjoyed the festivities, as this photo would indicate.

Two who have been around Clemson many years compared notes during the evening. On the left is Rock Norman, retired track and basketball coach, and Carl McHugh, who will soon enter his 25th season as Clemson swimming coach.

Clemson

Alumni Association

of Clemson alumni exists for only two purposes: to serve Clemson University and its students and to serve Clemson alumni. It does the second by providing an organization, records, programs and publications through which the alumni may stay abreast of the progress of their University and of their own personal, civic and professional development. It does the first by sponsoring the Clemson Alumni Loyalty Fund, dedicated to furthering the student welfare and educational mission of the University.

Summed up

Clemson's overall educational capability has been enhanced by some $4.5 million since the Loyalty Fund began in 1956. By and large, this has accrued to the benefit to Clemson students. To this end, I invite every Clemson alumnus and alumna to make a gift to Clemson each year through the Loyalty Fund. The only direct beneficiary is Clemson University and her students and alumni by reflection. This year's fund ends December 31. If you have not yet made your 1974 gift, please do so now/Lawrence V. Starkey '56, National Alumni President.

Thomas G. Clemson

Associates

The National Council of the Clemson Alumni Association has recently established the Thomas Green Clemson Associates program to recognize those alumni who make significant gifts to Clemson through the Alumni Loyalty Fund over long periods of time. Each Associate of the founder of Clemson University who has been an Associate for five or more years receives a handsome personalized plaque that signifies his or her years of giving at this level in increments of five years. The bottom of the plaque provides space for five, ten, fifteen, twenty, and twenty-five year medallions. There are today over 400 Thomas Green Clemson Associates who are making Loyalty Fund gifts of $100 or more each year.

The plaque reads:

"... Name ... joins the founder of Clemson University in a dedication to higher education by making an annual gift of significance to the Clemson Alumni Loyalty Fund." Each alumnus and alumna is invited to become a Thomas Green Clemson Associate by making the desire known to the Alumni Association.

CLEMSON ALMA MATER

Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness

Where the Tigers play;

Here the sons of dear old Clemson,

Reign supreme alway.

CHORUS

Dear old Clemson, we will triumph

And with all our might

That the Tiger's roar may echo

O'er the mountain height.

Over the years, Zenith color TV has earned a reputation for dependability and picture excellence no other color TV can match.*

And today's Zenith solid-state Chromacolor II backs up that reputation with a combination of features no other color TV can offer.

The famous Chromacolor picture tube that set a new standard of excellence in color TV. A patented Power Sentry voltage regulator that protects components. And a rugged, 100% solid-state modular chassis for long-life dependability.

It's the best way we know to make sure, at Zenith, the quality goes in before the name goes on.[®]

CHROMACOLOR II

For the third straight year, a nationwide survey of independent TV service technicians has named Zenith, by more than 2 to 1 over the next best brand, as the color TV needing fewest repairs. The same survey rated Zenith as the highest-quality color TV, as the one with the best picture, and as the one service technicians would buy for themselves today. Survey details on request.
